Our University partnership

Proud to be part of the University of Chichester Academy Trust

XXX is a proud member of the University of Chichester Academy Trust. As an academy, XXX is a state-funded school that is largely independent of local authority control. We remain guided by the national education framework but have greater freedom to make choices, for example, on setting our own budget priorities and a curriculum that meets local needs.

Our links to the University of Chichester

The University of Chichester Academy Trust is a Multi-Academy Trust (MAT) and is developing a family of academies based on hubs in the region. As a member of the Academy Trust, XXX has exciting opportunities to share expertise and resources with other academies as well as to access support from central Trust professional services staff.

XXX also benefits greatly from a continuing programme of school improvement supported by the Trust and expert colleagues at the University of Chichester. The University's Institute of Education has a distinguished history of teacher training that goes back over 150 years and is noted for its professional learning programmes for teachers and high quality education research.

In addition, specialist University departments such as Music, Art, Dance and Adventure Education contribute to the Academy curriculum, offering visits to the University campus or providing subject support.
